Hello, my name is Dale Stenberg. I'm a teaching fellow with the Davenant Institute, an institute that was established with the goal of renewing Christian wisdom for the contemporary church. Part of my duties as a teaching fellow for the Davenant Institute, and one of my pleasures, is co-hosting the Pilgrim Faith Podcast with my dear brother and colleague, Dr. Joseph Minnick, wherein human wonder fuels the quest for Christian wisdom.

The Pilgrim Faith Podcast exists to create an interdisciplinary conversation about a host of challenging topics for contemporary Christians. The goal is to discover the wisdom that emerges betwixt a host of counselors. To that end, we'll normally have various interviews with authors, pastors, academics, and theologians covering a wide range of topics with the aim at helping the church think deeper on the things of God, how to love our neighbor, and our calling as Christians in this world.

This will be a weekly podcast. We'll record on Monday afternoons, and the podcast should normally be uploaded Monday evenings. You can find the podcast on various mediums, including Spotify, iTunes, the Davenant Institute YouTube page, and whatever your favorite podcast catcher is.

We also have a Facebook page where we'll be publishing content, and more exciting, a Facebook group where you can actually get involved in the conversation. We can chat about various topics that we talk about in the podcast episodes, and you can offer your recommendations on topics that you'd like us to discuss. As teaching fellows, we are 100% listener supported.

If you think that our ministry is worthy of your financial support, then we'll have links that you can give us your financial gifts and come alongside us as partners in ministry to disseminate this truth more widely. Our hope in this project is that the church will be edified, and they'll be built up in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. Our prayer is that we can provide a sustainable intellectual foundation for defending the Christian faith in an ever-increasing secular age.

We hope that you will find enjoyment in the topics that we discuss, and we also hope that you'll be encouraged to pursue your calling as a Christian in this world. I want to thank you for taking the few minutes it took to watch this video, and I hope that you will join us in our ministry efforts and enjoy our content. Thank you so much.
